Career objective

MERN Stack developer passionate about building user-friendly web experiences. I love fast-paced environments where I can use my MERN expertise (MongoDB, Express.js, React, and Node.js) to create innovative and easy-to-use applications. Skilled at both tackling problems on my own and working seamlessly with teams.

Career summary

Aspiring Web Developer with a strong foundation in web development principles acquired since 2022. Eager to leverage my growing skillset in JavaScript, Nodejs, React js, Mongoddb and express js to contribute to a dynamic team environment. Highly motivated and a fast learner, I'm actively seeking opportunities to apply my knowledge and gain real-world experience building user-friendly web applications.
